OPEN LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

To: Anyone Looking at This Page

From: Fred Buzzerd, Editor

The 1958 Cohongoroota could have been a much better book, but it barely is an improvement upon last year's volume. Many things are lacking: a large staff, accurate classification, more pages, etc., but in its way it tells its story. Pictures are a lot, but not everything, unfortunately. Still we give you a record that contains more student pictures, better coverage, and cleaner layouts than has yet been attained. With the growth of Shepherd, we hope that herein the groundwork for a "Big" school annual has been presented for future staffs.

My thanks to the people who believed in this book and did something to help it. They often did the work of twenty people, merely because they had no other choice.

Regards,

Fred Buzzerd

DEDICATION

It is with a sense of humility and dignity that this annual is justly given in the name of our late academic dean, Dr. Jess O. Cullison.

In the single year that he was with us at Shepherd, his kindness, his admirable administration of his office, his Christian attitude, and his insight into human nature made him a valued friend of all who knew him.

We have lost a rare individual.

SHEPHERD'S FUTURE

President Ikenberry (above) is shown with a scale model of the Shepherd of the future. With an ever-growing population, the school is planning for new dormitories, new library and a student union building.

MR. PIM PASSES BY

As their Fall production, the College drama department presented A. A. Milne's "Mr. Pim Passes By." The English comedy of manners was given for two evenings. Featured in the cast were: Sylvia Sigafoose, Ross Cunningham, Marian Bennett, John Wolf, Dorothy Poisal, Betty Ikenberry, and Fred Buzzerd as Pim.

UNITED NATIONS STUDY

A group of Shepherd students with Dr. Ruth Scarborough as adviser visited the United Nations in New York City during November. While there they attended a meeting of the General Assembly as well as a session of the Security Council. Other hours were spent in surveying life in the city.

CONCERTS

Handel's Messiah was given by the Choir during the Christmas season. The College Band presented several diverse concerts through the year, and both groups went on concert tours in the area. Herbert Wildeboor directs the choir and Dr. William Alexander is the band's new conductor.

FIRST DAY OF SPRING

The Winter weather at Shepherd came in like a lamb and went out like a lion. In early February a heavy snow nearly closed the school, but things managed to function somehow. More snow followed later in that month, and once more the campus took the strange appearance which great quantities of snow produce.

AT SHEPHERD

The snow returned to help welcome the first day of 1958's Spring. By this time, students and faculty alike had resigned themselves to the fact that the Arctic had come to stay. One tennis fanatic (above) refused to let the weather ruin his opening day. This optimism proved correct as the snow was gone by April and the rains came . . .

ASSEMBLIES

Again this year, many varied assemblies were offered to Shepherd students. Above Dr. Ibrahim Anis, ambassador from Sudan, addresses the group in one of the outstanding programs. Other programs included a "Life Planning" Conference, Grant Reynard, noted artist, the Westminster Choir of international fame, the Virginia Symphony, and various guest speakers.

BIOLOGY FIELD TRIP

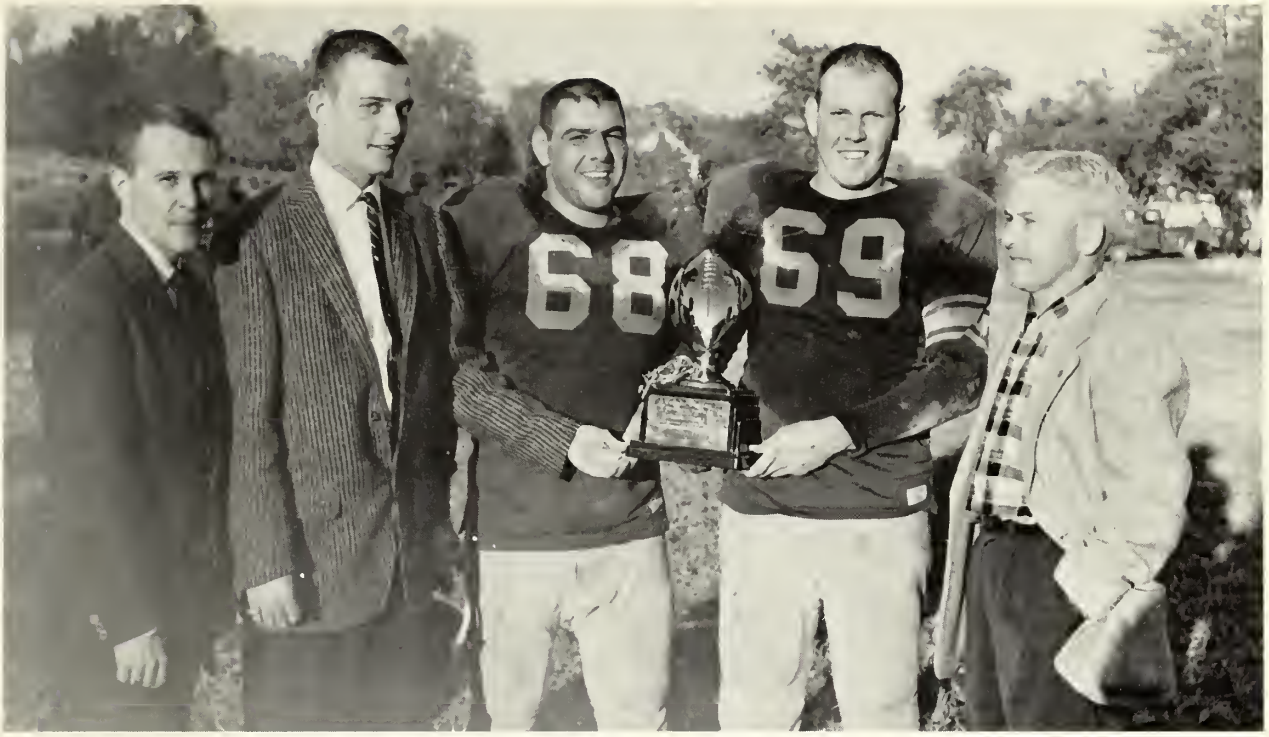
Each year the Biology department ventures forth on field trips under the supervision of instructors Harris and Bodola. The department feels that this is an invaluable supplement to classroom and lab activities. During a Christmas trip to Florida, the group returned with a live alligator!

What better finale for a school year than a crowded Queen's Ball with dancing to the music of Woody Herman and his Third Herd?

SPORTS

FOOTBALL

The season featured many close games, the outcomes of which were on varied sides from week to week. Perhaps the most impressive victories being the Homecoming game and the season's opener against Edinboro in the Stainless Steel Bowl which Shepherd won, 7-6. The only other win came against hapless Davis-Elkins, though the Rams just missed winning a hard fought 9-7 contest from Concord. Two players, Jim Fazzalore and Joe Hockman, were named to the WVIAC first team at the season's end.



Calvin Dirting Memorial Award

A 22-yard field goal by fullback Tedd Rudd in the last 20 seconds of play gave Shepherd a 15-14 victory over Potomac State in this year's Homecoming Game. Above, the Calvin Dirting Memorial Award is made to co-captains Fazzalore and Johnson with head coach Riggleman immediately following the game which marked Shepherd's second win over the Staters in three years.

"Fight, team, fight!"

BASKETBALL

After a fast start the Rams lost seven straight ball games, most of them on the road. The season, while not a winning one, proved of great interest as many close games were played throughout the season. The team had consistently fine performances from center Bill Grant, Wayne Barr, "Spider" Connor, Jerry Hannas and others.

SNOW BOWL

A Non-Scheduled Game

Eskimo All-Stars

Scatback at work

Stopped on the one by the center of the Huskies' line!

SWIMMING

Coach Fieger faced a major rebuilding job on this year's tankmen. Only two lettermen returned this season and experience seemed lacking in many key events. The home meets proved a popular success, with large attendance during the season, while the team offered many first-year men valuable experience.

BASEBALL

Led by captain "Cinders" Snyder and good pitching by Allen Gates and lefty Bill Isherwood, Cletus Lowe's Ram nine posted a good season of baseball, both at home and on the road. Among their opponents were Bridgewater, Frostburg, Washington College, Shippensburg, and the old rival, Potomac State.
